

Investor Webinar

- Buru Energy will hold an Investor Webinar on Wednesday 29 November at 9am AWST / 12noon AEDT.
- Update will be provided on the Rafael conventional gas and condensate development, 2H Resources and Geovault.

Buru Energy (Buru, Company) is pleased to announce that it will hold an Investor Webinar on Wednesday 29 November 2023.

Buru Energy CEO, Thomas Nador, invites you to join him for a live webinar hosted by Proactive Investors.

Mr Nador will provide an update on the exciting progress Buru has been making, not only on the game changing Rafael conventional gas and condensate discovery in the Canning Basin of Western Australia but also the building momentum behind Buru's subsidiary new energy businesses, 2H Resources and GeoVault.

Mr Nador will also discuss the current Share Purchase Plan offer for eligible shareholders.

Details of the Webinar are as follows:

Date / Time: Wednesday 29 November at 9am AWST / 12noon AEDT
Registration: <https://event.webinarjam.com/register/284/6k43xhnm>

Registration will be open to Buru shareholders and new interested investors.

Questions can be submitted to Buru at info@buruenergy.com before 5pm AWST 28 November and will be answered during the webinar. If there are numerous questions on a particular subject the answers will be consolidated in the interests of time.

The webinar will also be recorded and will be available on the website www.buruenergy.com
